

For the Governor of Cahir Castle: These.

'Before Cahir,' 24th February, 1649.

SIR,

Having brought the Army and my cannon near this place,-according to my usual manner in summoning places I thought fit to offer you Terms, honourable for soldiers: That you may march away, with your baggage, arms and colours; free from injury or violence. But if I be necessitated to bend my cannon upon you, you must expect the extremity usual in such cases.

To avoid blood, this is offered to you by,

Your servant,
OLIVER CROMWELL.
