

For the Right Honourable my Lord of York: These:

'Putney,' 1st September, 1647.

MY LORD,

Your Advices will be seriously considered by us. We shall endeavour, to our uttermost, so to settle the affairs of North Wales as, to the best of our understandings, does most conduce to the public good thereof and of the whole. And that without private respect, or to the satisfaction of any humour, - which has been too much practised on the occasion of our Troubles.

The Drover you mention will be secured, as far as we are able, in his affairs, if he come to ask it. Your Kinsman shall be very welcome: I shall study to serve him for Kindred's sake;-among whom let not be forgotten,

My Lord,
Your cousin and servant,
OLIVER CROMWELL.
